GVEC Background:

- Guadalupe Valley Electric Cooperative (GVEC) is headquartered in Gonzales, Texas and serves over 65,000 customers in Central Texas. Firm peak demand is approximately 330 MW with an annual load factor approaching 50%. With interruptible, peak demand is approximately 404 MW with an annual load factor of 56%.
- Full requirements wholesale power contract with Lower Colorado River Authority (LCRA) is scheduled to expire June 25, 2016; GVEC must provide notice by June 25, 2011. Scenario A reflects this alternative for 100% of GVEC's total load (firm and interruptible) to be provided by an independent provider.
- LCRA has offered a new partial requirements contract for consideration. Scenario B reflects this alternative for GVEC's partial load (firm and interruptible) to be provided by an independent provider.
